Dear Roger:

This letter will serve as confirmation of my interest in optioning and further developing your play, "The Last Confession," as a feature motion picture.

However, at the advice of Counsel, I am unable to proceed with my offer until such time as you have resolved your legal issues with David Yallop.

Also, as you know, I have secured a commitment of interest in both the scripting and the directing of the proposed movie by Michael Radford. Radford's availability is somewhat in flux and without a timely offer to him, I run the risk of losing him. Therefore, I am extremely hopeful for a quick resolution of your legal issues.

Please advise.

All best regards.

Cordially,

Michael Brandman
